C. S. HUBBARD, No. 24 Broad Street, Boston, Mass., is our regularly appointed agent to receive subscriptions to our paper in the States of Connecticut and Rhode Island.

Bad Conduct at Nashville.

The following documents will show that the State Treasurer has been acting badly, and that he and his securities will suffer, if he should fail to produce the School Funds he has been improperly tampering with. The Senate called upon the Treasurer of the State, and he responded on the 10th, requiring us to write a statement two inches in length, so will be seen.

The Governor has dispatched a Committee of two Senators and two Representatives to Memphis in search of the funds, and if they are not forthcoming some of the parties will break into jail.

NASHVILLE, DEC. 10, 1866.

Mr. J. B. Friesen, Member of the Senate
Sir.—In obedience to Senate resolution No. 1, adopted December 5, 1866, the State Treasurer has the honor to state as follows:

Amount of State funds on deposit in Fiscal Agencies, on the 1st day of December, 1866, $1,814.

The 1-30 United States securities of third series belonging to the School Fund, together with the accrued interest thereon, are on deposit in the Tennessee National Bank, at Memphis, and are returnable to the Treasurer, as soon as demanded and of the Public Instruction, in bonds of the same amount.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

R. L. STANTON,
State Treas. and Capt. Pub. Inf.

The following message from the Governor was also presented by the Senator and the subject matter referred to in the same communication.

STATE OF TENNESSEE,
Executive Department,
Nashville, Dec. 10, 1866.

MEMBERS OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The Governor, Secretary of State, and Comptroller of the War Department have held for safe keeping six hundred and eighteen thousand, two hundred and fifty dollars, in United States seventy-three bonds, known as one school fund, and treated as a sacred trust by all. The President of the assembly, which was created by the law, has turned the money over to the Treasurer, to look after its safety.

I am about prompted by a high sense of duty in bringing the subject before you to-day.

Respectfully, etc., W. G. BROWNLAW.

Mr. Brownlaw offered a resolution authorizing the sum of $1,000 to be paid to the State Treasurer for the school fund which has been abstracted, and that for the purpose he will have and exercise plenary power to do and perform all necessary acts in the premises.

The resolution was adopted under a suspension of the rules, and ordered to be transmitted to the State Auditor.

Some of the rebel partisans speak of the transfer in, that the fund was not secure where it was. True, there were three National Banks in the city, with which it could have been put out, but it is now safe, having turned the money over to the Treasurer, to look after its safety.

I am about prompted by a high sense of duty in bringing the subject before you to-day.

Respectfully, etc., W. G. BROWNLAW.
